Dear Mr. Lange:

Your phone call of September 25, 1996 requests that we send our 1913 Indian Head nickel struck in copper to Tom Mulvaney for photography. We are glad to do so.

We ask reimbursement for the cost of sending and insuring the coin and its return as well as some photographs of the coin for our files. We request one or two positive color images of each side of the coin as well as prints of any black and white photos you have taken.

Would you be kind enough to send us a copy of the existing edition of your book as well as sending us a copy of the updated edition when published for our library.

We would appreciate a confirmation of this arrangement from you.

Sincerely,

Thomas Serfass

P.S. We are advised that the postal insurance on the item sent registered mail will be $16.65 each way.
